

PENSER LE MARRONNAGE

vers une autre histoire de l'émancipation

THINKING MARRONAGE

Towards another history of emancipation

14-15 Novembre
Reid Hall
4 rue de Chevreuse, 75006 Paris

Artwork: "Crianças Estelares" (2018) by Samuel de Saóia

Penser le marronnage:
Vers une autre histoire de l'émancipation

Thinking Marronage:
Towards another history of emancipation

Reid Hall, Columbia Global Centers | Paris
November 14-15, 2019

In cooperation with Université Toulouse Jean Jaurès and Sciences Po Paris

Thursday, November 14

14h-14h30 : Welcome remarks – Loren Wolfe, Kaiama L. Glover, Hourya Bentouhami

14h30-15h45 : Marronage and the Decolonization of Political Theory

– Victor Galdino, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro

Imaginal politics, marronage and emancipation: can a world be rebuilt from fragments?

– Niklas Pläetzer, Sciences Po Paris/University of Chicago

On the Normative Content of Maroon Modernity

Chair : Hourya Bentouhami (université Toulouse II Jean Jaurès)

15h45-16h: BREAK

16h-18h : Thinking Marronage in the Shadow of the Hexagon

– Gabriel Rivière, Université Toulouse II Jean Jaurès

Contre une esthétisation du marronnage: politique du Discours antillais d'Édouard Glissant

– Kaiama L. Glover, Barnard College / Columbia University

"Le monde francophone s'enflamme": René Depestre's lonesome marronage

– Françoise Vergès, FMSH

Marronage and the Imaginaries of Decolonial Struggle

Chair : Niklas Pläetzer (Sciences Po / UChicago)

18h-18h15: BREAK

18h15-19h30: Moment de palabre

Penser/panser le marronnage et les danses marronnes

Performance by Bintou Dembélé and Dénètem Touam Bona

Friday, November 15

10h-11h15: (Re)inventing Marronage for the Present

- Hourya Bentouhami, Université Toulouse II Jean Jaurès
Notes pour un féminisme marron

- Elsa Dorlin, Paris 8
Phénoménologie de la proie

Chair: Eraldo Santos

11h15-11h30 : BREAK

11h30-13h : Quilombismo and the Politics of Resistance in Brazil

- Christen Smith, UT Austin
Fuga: The Black Radical Vision of Beatriz Nascimento's Quilombismo

- Kabengele Munanga, University of São Paulo
Citoyenneté et quilombismo

Chair : Dandara Jesuine Souza do Espirito Santo, EHES

13h-14h30: LUNCH

14h30-15h45 : Fugitivity as Method and Metaphor

- kihana ross, Northwestern University
Underground, Outer Space, and on the Move: Fugitive Possibilities in Black Education

- Kathryn Benjamin Golden, Stanford University (video conference)
Tidewater Marronage: A North American History

Chair: Hourya Bentouhami

15h45-16h15: BREAK

16h15-18h15: Maroon Futures Past

- Neil Roberts, Williams College (video conference)
How to Live Free in an Age of Pessimism

- Gary Wilder, CUNY
There is No Outside: The Practice of Marronage and the Problem of Freedom

- Marquis Bey, Northwestern University
Fugitive Insurrection and Its Para-ontological Blackness

Chair: Kaiama L. Glover

18h15-19h: BREAK and Reception for participants

19h-21h: Film Screening of “Atlantique” by Mati Diop, followed by a discussion with Farah Clémentine Dramani-Issifou